OUTER SPACE THE NEWEST 'SPECIAL HOLIDAY' OPTION
 VIP Tourism, which has been the pioneer of many firsts in the Turkish tourism sector since 1968, will surprise travel enthusiast with a brand new destination offered among the holiday programs under the brand, Unique Travel Experience - VIP Luxury. VIP Tourism has taken over the media representation of the project of the Spanish company Zero2infinity which will, with its 20 million Euro investment, open the door to space travel. CEO of VIP Tourism, Ceylan Piriñcioğlu, said that they anticipated transporting 400 persons to space over the year via the Bloom that will take off for the first time in 2014. Piriñcioğlu added: "our dream is to send Bloom from a city in Turkey, such as Konya or Eskişehir, which can offer a convenient location for the take-off. Piriñcioğlu emphasized that the passengers would be able to see the sun and stars shining day and night with their own eyes and added, "I believe that the Bloom Project is a very important and leading project in terms of seeing the world from a larger angle and setting a precedent for space travel." Applications for those who want to go on a journey with Bloom will be taken as from January 1, 2012. The 10.000 Euro of the total sum of 110.000 Euro will be paid in advance, while the remaining amount will be paid in two equal installments in 2013 and 2014. Bloom, which will continue its experimental flights for another two years, will take off with its first passengers in 2014. It is expected that Bloom will take off 100 times and take 400 passengers to space during the first year.
